'n Stukkie grond van ± 2 morg is in 1762 aan Gerd Engelbrecht van Norden, Oos-Friesland, toegeken en kry die naam Leliefontein. In 1768 begin Pieter Hendrik Henning vir Engelbrecht werk en trou na 'n maand met sy dogter. Henning neem mettertyd Leliefontein oor by sy skoonpa, maar verkoop in 1784 aan Daniël G Celliers, toe hy na Graaff-Reinet verhuis.

A section of land, approximately 2 morgen was allocated to Gerd Engelbrecht of Norden, East Friesland in 1762 and was named Leliefontain. In 1768 Pieter Hendrik Henning started working for Engelbrecht. After a month he married Engelbrecht's daughter. In time he took over the farm from his farther in-law but sold it in 1784 when he moved to Graaff-Reinet.
